Press Release

Arc Surveys Ltd. Acquires Alberta Geomatics Inc.

Arc Surveys Ltd., a professional land surveying firm serving Edmonton and Calgary, is pleased to announce the acquisition of Alberta Geomatics Inc. This strategic move marks a significant milestone in Arc Surveys' growth, enhancing our ability to provide exceptional service and comprehensive land surveying solutions to our clients in Alberta.

We want to assure all clients of both Arc Surveys and Alberta Geomatics that this acquisition will not affect their day-to-day interactions and services. The continuity of our excellent service is paramount, and all key personnel from Alberta Geomatics will continue to stay on board. Our clients can expect the same high level of professionalism, accuracy, and dedication that they have always experienced.

Arc Surveys has built its business on the pillars of customer service and loyalty, principles that perfectly align with the core principles of Alberta Geomatics. This acquisition is a natural fit, bringing together two great companies that share a commitment to client satisfaction and quality service. Our combined expertise and resources will allow us to offer an even broader range of services and innovative solutions to meet the evolving needs of our clients.

We are excited about the future and the opportunities this acquisition presents. Together, Arc Surveys and Alberta Geomatics will continue to ensure our clients receive unparalleled service and support. Thank you for your continued trust and partnership as we embark on this new chapter.
